Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

March 27, 2001      LB 523

Missouri and Kansas have passed this. If I can recall where this is at in the bill, Tennessee, Georgia, some others are already...and it's in toward the back. I'll find it.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But here's what I mean. There is nothing that I have seen which restricts this compact to a certain geographical area. Have you found something like that in the bill?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Well, I'm going to read. The compact...it's on page 24: The compact shall enter into force effective when enacted into law by any three states of the group of states composed of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisville...Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and West Virginia, and when the consent of Congress has been obtained. In addition to that, Kansas is debating this; Oklahoma, which I think I mentioned, is debating it; Missouri has passed it; Nebraska, because it's an adjacent state, has been involved. It's not impossible the Dakotas could be interested.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But there...not all of the states that can be a part of it are named on that list that you read. Would you agree?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: That's the way I understand it, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So we don't really know precisely all the states that could be in it or any...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...that would be excluded.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: No, because we can't know what each one of those Legislatures will do,...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...including, Nebraska, Senator Chambers.
